

Business Leadership Networks are organizations composed of volunteers from the business community. Offering leadership by example and a supportive employer-to-employer network, the OHBLN seeks to promote and support the employment of qualified people who just happen to have disabilities. Nationally, there are 50 Business Leadership Network affiliates, representing 5,000 employers.

Talented Workforce

Disability Workforce

Employees with disabilities* **

- ◆ Have the same job performance ratings
- ◆ Do not require more supervisory time
- ◆ Are no more likely to be absent, late or have time off work
- ◆ Do not have more workplace accidents
- ◆ And are less likely to quit

$ $8.6 billion

Ohioans with disabilities have a combined income of $39 billion with $8.6 billion in discretionary income.

In comparison, the Ohio teen market controls about $5.5 billion.

Benefit from employer focused training provided at NO CHARGE in your community, at your worksite or through webinars.

503

The BLN can help federal contractors meet their Section 503 requirements and connect with qualified candidates with disabilities.

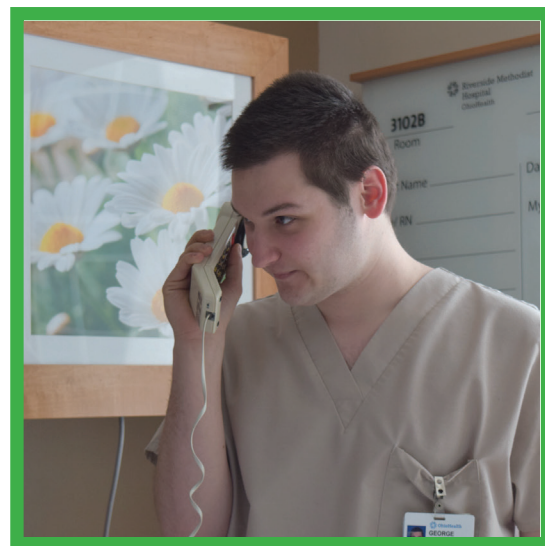

Learn best practices from Ohio companies like Procter & Gamble and OhioHealth who have successfully employed people with disabilities and benefitted from a diverse workforce.

Workplace Initiative of Ohio (WIO)

WIO is a collaboration between the OHBLN and Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD). OOD is Ohio's largest talent resource for workers with disabilities. WIO will help you fill your vital workforce needs by identifying qualified talent, preparing them for the interview and application process, and providing any necessary supports -- all at the speed of business. It is the mission of WIO to provide jobs for individuals with disabilities and to add to the diversity of your workplace by placing talented individuals with disabilities. When you join the Ohio BLN your business receives all of the benefits WIO has to offer.

OHIO BLN MISSION

To provide Ohio employers with relevant information and resources that enable them to enhance their diversity initiatives and increase their bottom lines through the successful recruitment, selection, training and retention of a workforce that includes qualified individuals with disabilities.
